Acknowledgment is made of your letter of July 22 inviting representation of the Library of Congress on the Intelligence Advisory Committee's Committee on Procurement of Foreign Publications.

We shall be pleased to have a representative on this Committee and I am glad to designate Mr. Lewis C. Coffin, Assistant Director of our Processing Department, to represent the Library. Mr. John W. Gronin, Director of the Processing Department, will serve as Mr. Coffin's alternate. Mr. Gronin and Mr. Coffin have both been cleared for security purposes through "Top Secret."
